Bionet products are exclusively available through our network of Authorized Distributors. Purchases made from unauthorized distributors or other sources may not be eligible for warranty coverage or support under the existing Bionet Warranty policy. To guarantee your product is covered, ensure your distributor is authorized, or contact our sales department at sales@bionetus.com or 877-924-6638.

Unauthorized use of any Bionet intellectual property and registered trademarks may constitute trademark infringement and unfair competition under the Lanham Act (15 United States Code Sections 1051, et seq.) and common law. Bionet will take appropriate legal action to enforce our rights and remedies against unauthorized use of our intellectual property and trademarks.

The following companies have been identified as unauthorized resellers of Bionet products. Products purchased from these companies may not be supported, and the warranty may be voided. This list is not exhaustive and is regularly updated as new unauthorized resellers are discovered.
